

Clay & Gascoine LLC an Indiana, PA CPA firm is seeking a qualified candidate for a full-time CPA accountant position. The position requires CPA certification and 5+ years of public accounting experience preferred. Successful candidates must display a strong work ethic, positive attitude and have excellent verbal and written communication skills. A working knowledge of income taxes and financial statement preparation of compilations, reviews and audits, and QuickBooks is desirable. The position has the responsibility of preparing individual and business income tax returns as well as preparing financial information at various levels for assigned clients that require the preparation of financial statements.

Salary will be based on experience with benefits including paid time off and holidays, retirement plan, health insurance, life insurance & disability. Interested candidates should submit a cover letter and resume to cgcpa@claygascoine.com.